

BIG AND QUICK TRIPS.

Several of Them on the Market Here Today.

Fleet Includes Salt Bankers, Shackers and Halibuters.

This has been quite a day for big and quick trips and in spite of the large receipts, there has been no drop in the prices of fish out of the vessel.

Sch. Lelia E. Norwood, Capt. Alfred Johnson, after being out only two weeks on a Georges halibut trip, arrived this morning with a fine fare, 60,000 pounds of fresh fish, 30,000 pounds of salt fish and 10,000 pounds of halibut. Capt. Johnson is a hustler and right at home at this hard and exacting kind of fishing.

Sch. Paragon, Capt. William Hermon, also arrived from a Georges halibuting trip with a big fare, 120,000 pounds of fresh fish and 6000 pounds of halibut. Capt. Hermon has made several trips in very quick time recently and was only a day or so over two weeks on this one.

Sch. Thalia, Capt. Ernest Eugstrom, arrived from a Georges halibuting trip this forenoon with a good fare, having 80,000 pounds of fresh fish, 5000 pounds of salt fish and 4000 pounds of halibut.

From the Funks, the far northern fishing ground up among the icebergs, sch. Tacoma, Capt. Adelbert Nickerson, brings 35,000 pounds of fresh halibut. Capt. Nickerson reports being on fine fishing, but the ice came down on them and fairly drove them off their good spot and materially lessened the size of their trip.

Sch. Bohemia, Capt. Ormby Seeley, arrived today from a salt bank codfishing trip with a fine fare, 230,000 pounds of salt cod. As the high price still holds on these kind of fish, Capt. Seeley will make a fine large stock and share.

From the deep water of La Have bank, Capt. James Goodwin has brought sch. Ella M. Goodwin home with a big load of fresh fish, 160,000 pounds at least, and may be more, and 3000 pounds of fresh halibut. Capt. Goodwin is certainly there with the goods.

The new Boston schooner Susan and Mary is also at this port this morning with her second fare, 120,000 pounds of fresh fish. Her young skipper is starting in in fine style.

From the hake fields of the Maine coast the pretty schooner Richard Nunan arrived yesterday with 80,000 pounds of fresh fish, a big trip for a craft of her size.

THROUGH DORY BOTTOM.

Swordfish Nearly Struck One of Sch. Eva Mildred's Crew.

Sch. Eva Mildred, which arrived at T wharf, Boston, Saturday morning, brought in 75 swordfish and a piece of a swordfish sword, there being attached to the latter a tale of a very narrow escape of one of the crew.

Edward Estes is the name of the fisherman who is congratulating himself on the bad aim of the swordfish. It was the last one taken on the trip. It was late Wednesday afternoon when the lookout at the foretopmast sighted the fish floating on the surface of the water. He hailed the deck, and the man at the wheel steered for the fish, the spearman making ready to strike at him. It proved a very big one, and the spearman sent the lily iron into him with all his force.

The man on the deck holding the buoy attached to the lily iron rope had scarcely time to cast it overboard, so sudden was the dive of the surprised fish. It fell to Edward Estes to take the dory, and go after the fish with a rowing mate. Estes caught up the buoy, and planting himself at the stern of the dory, began to pull in the line. As soon as the fish felt the first tug on the line he turned in the direction of the dory, and came for it like a flash. Diving within 10 feet of it, he came up under it, and drove the hard, bony sword nearly two feet through the bottom within a few inches of where Estes stood.

The sword caught fast, and the fish nearly overturned the dory in his attempts to get free. Estes cut the intruding sword off at the bottom of the dory, and the fish freed itself, and later was killed. The piece of sword cut off by Estes was kept on board as a trophy.

STOCKED NEARLY $15,000.

Capt. Eben T. Lewis Has Done Well This Season.

Will Now Give Up Command of Sch. Mary E. Harty.

Sch. Mary E. Harty, Capt. Eben T. Lewis stocked $5093.16 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $120.27. Since starting in the Harty this spring, Capt. Lewis has stocked $14,500 which is certainly a record of which to be proud. Always up among the leaders and several years the high line of the fleet, Capt. Lewis has for years been one of the leading figures in the mackerel fishery.

Many big stocks he has made and many big trips he has landed, and yet he shows no sign of the strain of years of hard endeavor. Those who know him best claim that he has discovered the fountain of perpetual youth, and certainly it seems so, for he always looks the same, no older as the years have rolled by, and today could easily be mistaken for one of the young skippers just beginning the business of seining mackerel.

"Eben," as everybody calls him, will now go home to Boothbay Harbor for the rest of the summer, but his many friends here hope to see him again next season.

Bank Cod Sale.

The fare of salt bank cod of sch. Hazel R. Hines to Slade Gorton & Co., at $3.32 1-2 per hundred weight for large and $3.37 1-2 for mediums.

MORE FLITCHERS HEARD FROM.

Two Were at Newfoundland Port for Water.

They Both Report Bad Weather and Lots of Ice.

Letters received here yesterday from Capt. Charles Flygore of the sch. Arbutus and Capt. Albert Flygore of the sch. Blanche, both of the flitched halibut fleet, reported them a Domino, N. F., recently, for water. The captains and crews of both vessels were well and reported having encountered very stormy weather and lots of ice.

HAS A BIG FARE.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw Has Ice House Full and Fish on Deck.

A telephone message from Capt. John W. McFarland of sch. Victor, which arrived at Boston, this morning with a big fare of mackerel says that he will probably count out over 25,000 fresh mackerel and that he sold his 73 barrels of salt mackerel there at $14.25 per barrel. Capt. McFarland will hustle right out again as soon as the fresh mackerel are out. He said that sch. Annie Greenlaw had a big fare. Every pen of her ice house was full of mackerel and she also had 50 barrels in water on deck. Her fare is estimated at 25,000 fish in count.

COLLIDED ON BANKS.

Fate of Most of Crew of French Fisherman Unknown.

A cable from Plymouth Eng., yesterday says that the Norwegian bark Aljuca, Capt. Gundersen, from Dalhousie, N. B., arrived there yesterday, having on board two of the crew of the fishing bark Para, of Pecamp, France.

June 27, in latitude 45 degrees north, longitude 51 degrees west, when crossing the Grand Banks of Newfoundland, the Aljuca, during a dense fog, came in collision with the Para. Two sailors from fishing bark jumped aboard the Aljuca, and the vessels separated, after which the Aljuca saw no more of the French vessel, although she remained in the vicinity some time. The fate of the fishing bark is unknown. The Aljuca was damaged on her starboard bow and had to jettison her deck load of lumber.

PAID A $400 FINE.

St. John, July 19.—The Eastport, Me., fishing schooner Flora, seized at St. George for violation of customs regulations by not entering on arrival, has been released on payment of $400.

AND STILL THEY COME.

More Fine Mackerel Fares In From Georges.

SOME HERE, SOME AT BOSTON

Whole Fleet Reported on Ground Where Fish Are.

The seiners continue to bring good fares from the southeast part of Georges and this morning there are five vessels at T wharf, Boston, with the following profitable trips:

Sch. Grayling, Capt. Reuben Cameron, 11, 160 fresh mackerel, 160 barrels salt mackerel.

Sch. Edna Wallace Hopper, Capt. Almon D. Malloch, 17,000 fresh mackerel in count.

Sch. Arthur Binney, Capt. William Cluett, 12,000 fresh mackerel in count, 128 barrels of salt mackerel.

Sch. Shenandoah, Capt. James C. Gannon, 3000 fresh mackerel in count, 40 barrels salt mackerel.

Sch. Lizzie M. Stanley, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, 14,000 fresh mackerel, 60 barrels salt mackerel.

The fish sold for 12 1-2 cents apiece. The vessels all got their fresh fish yesterday excepting the Binney, which took hers on Monday. The fish were taken on the southeast part of Georges and about all the fleet were there.

Sch. Natalie B. Nickerson, Capt. John Seavey, arrived here last evening from the southeast part of Georges with a fine fare, 140 barrels of salt mackerel and 12,000 fresh mackerel in count. The latter sold to John Nagle & Co. at 11 1-2 cents each and the former to the Gloucester Mackerel Company at $14.25 per barrel. Capt. Seavey said that 58 sail of the fleet were there when he sailed for home.

The vessels struck fish on Saturday and also made hauls Sunday and Monday. There appeared to be a good body of fish there and when they showed they were very easy to catch. The captain also reports that it looked very fishy on Middle Bank when he came across yesterday afternoon.

Sch. Kentucky, Capt. Elroy Prior, arrived here this forenoon from the southeast part of Georges with a fine trip, 260 barrels of salt mackerel and 12,000 fresh mackerel in count.

The fare of sch. Leander F. Gould (rimmed fish) sold to Parmenter & Co. at $14.50 per barrel.

The fare of sch. Ralph L. Hall sold to John Pew & Son.

The salt fish of the sch. Shenandoah at Boston are rimmed.

The fare of sch. George Parker sold to John Pew & Son.

Sch. George Parker, Capt. Rufus McKay, came down from Boston Monday night, after taking out her fare there. Yesterday she was stowed off, fitted out, took in ice, went on the ways and painted and sailed last evening. This is certainly hustling.

Late this forenoon sch. Nellie Dixon, Capt. James Ellis, arrived at Boston with 16,000 fresh mackerel in count, the fish selling at 12 1-4 cents each.

Fresh mackerel sold at 12 cents each at T wharf yesterday.

The fare of sch. Natalie B. Nickerson sold here to John Nagle & Co., the fish bringing 11 1-2 cents each.

The fresh fare of the sch. Kentucky sold to the Gloucester Fresh Fish Co., for 11 1-2 cents.

A novel affair was that given by the Grimsby steam trawler Syrian, which had steamed into Tilley recently for shelter from the strong westerly gale. The Sheffield Eng., Telegraph describes it as a novel courtesy of the sea, and says, she had no sooner anchored under the lee of the brig and swung around with her head to the wind than by means of an organ pipe arrangement on her siren she gave full blast to "Auld Lang Syne." The tune was most admirably played and brought scores of folk running to the foreshore and cliff tops to investigate the strange occurrence. After a short pause the siren broke into "A Life on the Ocean Wave," the boat meanwhile pitching short at her anchor, while thunderous seas dashed over the reef. "The Bay of Biscay" was next rendered the melody later giving place to "The Death of Nelson." The novel salute to the town was acknowledged by the dipping of flags. Later in the afternoon the steamer obliged with "Rule Britannia" and "God Save the Queen."

This is certainly a new departure, but we would hardly like to have a fleet of these trawlers in port and all attempting to give a little music at the same time. One or two of them, playing at intervals, would prove quite a pleasing affair and as such would always receive a warm welcome.
